BAPTIST WOMEN CONCLUDE WORK

Conference on Missionary Methods Ends.

Final Session of Divisional Meeting Full of Interest To All—Sessions of Conference Were Well Attended and Much Helpful Information Secured—Delegates Leave For Home—Resolutions of Thanks Adopted By Body.

The Divisional Conference of Missionary Methods being held by the Baptist women came to a close yesterday morning after a most helpful and enjoyable session. A session had been planned for the afternoon, but the talks for the afternoon were made at the morning session. The conference has been largely attended and the sessions have been filled with talks and discussions that have been of much practical value to the women. Many new ideas were brought out and the different phases of the work discussed so all could derive benefit from the experiences of others.

A large number of the delegates returned to their homes yesterday, but a number remained over until this morning.

The session yesterday morning began with devotional exercises by Mrs. G. T. Lumpkins, of Winston. Mrs. Killian discussed Mission Study Classes in a helpful manner. Others who participated in the discussion were Mrs. Carr, who told of the results accomplished by the class in West Market Street M. E. church; Miss Lincoln, of Meredith College; Mrs. Chas L. Haywood, of Durham; Mrs. E. L. Middleton, of Cary; Miss Juliette Loving, of Meredith College, and Mrs. S. W. Morrisette, of Winston-Salem.

Difficulties and How to Overcome Them was the subject of a helpful talk by Mrs. Killian.

At the request of the conference Mrs. P. S. Mann, superintendent of the conference, sent a telegram of sympathy and regrets to Miss Elizabeth Briggs, the corresponding secretary, who was kept at home by illness.

The subject, "Developing Our Resources," was then taken up and ably discussed by Mrs. Holman, Mrs. Geo. Vernon and Mrs. J. L. Myers. Some ideals for Missionary Societies, Auxiliaries, Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors was the next subject, this being discussed by Mrs. J. J. Roddick and Mrs. W. F. Staley.

Resume of Conference and Personal Responsibility were subjects that received careful attention, several speakers bringing out a number of helpful thoughts. They were discussed by Mrs. Middleton, Mrs. Lumpkins, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Ivey, Miss Lincoln, Miss Latham, the latter being a visitor from the Eastern district.

Mrs. E. L. Middleton was appointed a committee of one to draw up resolutions of thanks. She presented the following which was unanimously adopted:

The ladies of the Baptist Missionary Institute of the Central Division desire to express their appreciation for the cordial hospitality extended to us by the Greensboro people and a vote of thanks to the members of the First church, to the committee on hospitality, to the ministers of the city for the aid so generously given us, to Rev. C. E. Maddry, of Statesville, for his thrilling address on home missions, to Dr. W. C. Tyree, of Oxford, for his earnest appeal on foreign missions, to Miss Fannie Heck, president of the Missionary Union, to Mrs. W. N. Jones, treasurer of the Missionary Union, to Mrs. J. Y. Killian, college secretary of the Union, to Mrs. P. S. Vann, who so ably presided over the meetings, to the press, to the excellent corps of ushers and all the Christian workers who aided in making the meeting a success."

Alexander Improving.

A message from the Hospital last night was to the effect that Walter Alexander, the negro who was caught in the cave-in near the waterworks Wednesday afternoon and badly injured, was getting along all right. Several ribs were broken and the negro was shaken up considerably. He will be able to get out in a few days.

DR. ELLIOTT A NATIVE OF NORTH CAROLINA
His Father Was Late Aaron Elliott of This City.

The Telegram yesterday carried a brief announcement of the death of Dr. A. M. Elliott, a brother of Mrs. Ada E. Ledbetter, at his home in Baltimore. The following regarding his death from the Baltimore Sun will be of interest to many Greensboro people:

Dr. A. Marshall Elliott, head of the department of Romance languages and philology at the Johns Hopkins University, died at 6:15 o'clock yesterday morning, at his home, 1028 North Calvert street, after a long illness of cancer of the stomach. He had been ill for nearly two years, and spent all last winter at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. In the summer he went to Atlantic City, but on October 13 returned home. For the past two weeks Dr. Elliott's condition had been critical, and his death was looked for at almost any moment. His sister, Mrs. Ada E. Lee, was with him at the time of his death.

Besides his wife, who was Mrs. Lily Tyson Manly, Dr. Elliott is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Perrin Reynolds, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Mrs. A. E. Ledbetter, of Greensboro, N. C., and Mrs. Ada E. Lee, pastor of the Friends church, Marion, Ind., and one brother, Mr. James E. Elliott, of Galveston, Texas. His father, who died about 30 years ago in Greensboro, was the late Aaron Elliott, a business man of that city.

While the arrangements for Dr. Elliott's funeral will not be completed until this morning, it was stated at his home last night that the funeral services will take place at 2:30 Friday afternoon, and that he will be buried in Greenmount cemetery.

Dr. Elliott's marriage to Mrs. Manly, who is a daughter of the late James E. Tyson, of Ellicott City, took place June 14, 1905. They lived for a time at 18 East Eager street and entertained extensively.

Arthur Marshall Elliott, one of the original members of the faculty of Johns Hopkins University and a distinguished authority on the French language and Romance philology in general, was born in Pasquotank county, North Carolina, January 24, 1844. He was a graduate of Haverford College, Harvard University and the University of Munich. He studied in the College de France, Ecole des Hautes Etudes, Paris, 1868-71; Instituto degli Studi Superiori, Florence, 1871-73; University of Madrid, 1873; Universities of Munich, Tubingen, Vienna, 1874-6; took his doctor's degree at Princeton in 1877 and was given the degree of doctor of laws at Wake Forest in 1891 and at Haverford in 1908.

He was one of the founders of the Modern Language Association of America, and served as secretary for seven years and as president for a year. He was the editor of "Modern Language Notes," now in its twenty-fifth volume. Among the associations of which he was a member were the Archaeological Institute of America, American Philological Association, American Philological Society, American Oriental Society, Maryland Historical Society, National Geographical Society, Dante Society, Maryland Society of New York, North Carolina Society of Baltimore, of which he was president for a year; Haverford Alumni Association (president), and Societe Amicale Gaston Paris, of France. He was also a clubman, belonging to the Maryland, University, Baltimore County and Johns Hopkins Clubs. He was a former president of the Hopkins Club.

LOWER COURT IS CONFIRMED

Negro Dynamiters Must Serve Sentences

State Supreme Court Holds That There Is No Error In Case of State vs. Whitfield, Watson and Hogan—The Negroes Who Dynamited House of Negro Detective Last Spring—Other Guilford Appeal Cases.

The State Supreme Court last evening handed down an opinion confirming the judgment of the lower court in the case of State vs. Whitfield, Watson and Hogan. This means that the negroes, who were convicted of dynamiting the house of a negro detective in Warnerville last spring, will have to serve terms in the State prison.

The negroes were tried at the June term of Guilford Superior court and convicted on the charge of secret assault with intent to kill. Hogan was given nine years in the penitentiary, while the other negroes were given eight years each. They appealed from this judgment and have been resting behind the bars of Guilford jail ever since. Now, however, they will likely be taken to the penitentiary to begin their sentences at once.

Raleigh, Nov. 10.—The Supreme court delivered opinions in twenty one appeals this evening, including the following Guilford cases: State vs. Whitfield, Watson and Hogan no error. Williams vs. Atlantic Coast Line, affirmed. Seaborn Jones vs. Life Insurance Company of Virginia, partial new trial. Lindsey vs. Fries Manufacturing Company, per curiam, reversed. Woods vs. Levey, no error. Gilbreath vs. City of Greensboro, no error. Brewer vs. Minnow Manufacturing Company, per curiam affirmed. Martin vs. North Carolina Railroad Co., per curiam affirmed.

ROOSEVELT SULKS

Tells Visitors He Doesn't Want To Be Disturbed.

New York, November 10.—With business men and political leaders of the country placing full responsibility for the Republican defeat of Tuesday upon Theodore Roosevelt and predicting that it will once and for all drive him into political retirement, the Republican party managers yesterday were trying to realize the full extent of the catastrophe which swept over them on Tuesday. They were crushed and disengaged by the evidences of ruin and damage on all sides.

Meantime Colonel Roosevelt was at Oyster Bay, sulking. The fact that the very candidates for whom he made fervent appeals were defeated by overwhelming votes—larger than in any other instances—did not indicate to him, as it did to the leaders of his party, that these big votes were a direct slap at him.

Intimations that he may openly break with President Taft, criticize his administration and start an active campaign for the Presidential nomination two years hence came from Oyster Bay. Colonel Roosevelt refused to be seen by newspaper men. To inquirers he sent the word:—

"I don't want to be disturbed."

JENNINGS TO ROADS.

Convicted of Larceny and Sentenced To Eight Months in Two Cases.

The only cases in Municipal court of consequence yesterday morning were those against Henry Jennings, charging larceny. After hearing the evidence Judge Eude held that the defendant was guilty in two cases and sentenced him to eight months on the roads in each case, a total of sixteen months. In a third case the evidence was not sufficient to warrant a conviction so the defendant was acquitted.

Tom Pankie was charged with retailing, but the defendant was acquitted.

Literature Department, Woman's Club.

The regular monthly meeting of the literature department of the Woman's Club will be held Saturday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock in the assembly room of the Carnegie Library. Miss Mary Petty will tell of her visit to Parliament while abroad, and an interesting program on Jane Austen has been prepared. It is hoped that every member will be present.

Show a Democratic Majority of 1154.

Treasurer McKinney Led Ticket by Four Votes—The Commissioners Received Majority of 980—Mr. John A. Hodgin Led Republican Ticket by Two Votes Over Mr. Blair—The Socialists Poll Twenty Three Votes In County.

The County Board of Canvassers met in the court house yesterday morning and canvassed the election returns from the twenty-seven precincts in the county. The returns show that the average Democratic majority was 1154. Had the commissioners polled the usual vote the majority would have been over 1200. Coroner Wood led the ticket by four votes, but Treasurer McKinney received the biggest majority of any candidate. Judge W. R. Allen polled the largest vote of any Democratic candidate. Mr. John A. Hodgin, Republican candidate for commissioner, led his ticket by two votes over Mr. Blair, candidate for Congress.

The Socialists polled 23 votes this year against 42 polled two years ago. Mr. Elkins, candidate for Register of Deeds, led his ticket. Candidate for Congress R. J. Morton came next with 22 votes. The other Socialist candidates polled 18 votes each, excepting Mr. H. L. Hines who polled 17 votes for the State Senate.

State Auditor—W. P. Wood 3,054, J. Q. A. Wood 2,187.

The returns show that South Madison gave a Republican majority of about two to one, about the same as two years ago. The conditions in South Monroe were about the same as two years ago, being like results in Sumner. However the Democrats made gains in Deep River and in North and South High Point. The Republicans made a slight gain in South Jefferson. The total vote was about 700 less than was polled two years ago. All other precincts returned their usual Democratic majority, excepting Friendship and Jamestown. These townships have been Republican for some time.

PARLAND-NEWHALL ENTERTAINERS NEXT

Second Number of Lyceum Course To Be Given In Smith Memorial Building Next Tuesday Evening—A Strong Company—Other Attractions In the Course.

On next Tuesday, Nov. 15, the second concert of the season Lyceum course will be given in the Smith Memorial building. The attraction is the Parland-Newhall Co. composed of the following artists:

J. Lincoln Newhall, first tenor and cornet; Stewart A. Smith, second tenor and French horn; Jno. F. McCarthy, first bass, violin soloist and cornet; Ralph H. Parland, second bass and trombone.

One of the most novel features of the entertainment will be the bell-ringing feat by the quartet, which will be performed with about 100 bells, very much like regular dinner bells, of all sizes and tones. This adds variety to the program and is provocative of peculiar pleasure and delight because of its unique character, as well as its artistic execution.

The gentlemen composing this company are all artists of marked training and ability and of wide experience in meeting the demands of discriminating audiences and entertainment committees.

On account of the heating not having been installed at the West Market Street Methodist church annex, the next Lyceum number will be given at Smith Memorial building.

The numbers and dates of the Lyceum course in addition to that mentioned above are:

Dean Southwick, Dec. 2. Rounds' Ladies' Orchestra, Jan. 20. Romeo's Boys' Concert Co., Feb. 22. Chicago Glee Club, March 9. George R. Wendling, date to be arranged.

WALL STREET SETTLES ELECTION BETS OF MORE THAN MILLION.

When Money Changes Hands, It Becomes Known That Wagers, Both Up Town and Down Town, Were Much Heavier Than Was Supposed.

New York, November 10.—It was "dough day" in Wall street yesterday for those who backed their faith in Mr. Dix with their cash, stakeholders paying the winners more than $1,000,000. One curb broker who had handled $250,000 went to his bank with a market basket to get the funds in trusted to his care.

"Tis a full market basket," he said, "only there's nothing in it for the Republicans. The Lord is good to the Democrats—sometimes."

The representative of one of the largest Stock Exchange houses paid over $350,000, a cigar dealer gave out $105,000, and a well known commissioner who operates on the curb or at the uptown hotels and clubs. In these one widely known floor trader stood to lose $100,000. That is the amount a well known real estate operator who also deals heavily in stocks is understood to have wagered through agents. Commissioners who are familiar with what has been done in the uptown districts are inclined to think that fully as much was wagered uptown as downtown.

"It has been done more quietly than usual," said one of these, "because of the new betting laws, but it has been done just the same." Considerable of the money placed in the street is said to have been "wise" funds from Tammany Hall.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM

It Is An Internal Disease And Requires An Internal Remedy.
The cause of rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. RUBBING with Oil and Liniment WILL NOT CURE, affords only temporary relief at best, causes you to delay the proper treatment, and allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure Rheumatism than paint will change the color of rotten wood.

Silence has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called Rheumacide. Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marked cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide gets at the joints from the inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you well all over. Rheumacide strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause. This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c. and $1. a bottle. In tablet form at 25c. and 50c. a package. Write to Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md. Booklet free. Tablets sent by mail.

For sale by Howard Gardner, Drug-gist.

IN BUSY NEW YORK

Parrot Chase Stops Business and Congests Metropolitan Traffic.

New York Tribune.

A parrot almost as loquacious and erratic as the champion campaign orator of them all made life worth living in and about Lincoln Square Tuesday afternoon. It escaped from a Broadway shop, and until it was captured, almost an hour later on a window ledge, it furnished entertainment for several thousand persons.

Sidney Whitmore owns the parrot, which has contentedly inhabited the shop and showed no symptoms of wanting to explore the neighborhood. But Tuesday afternoon when Robert Sim, secretary of the company, inadvertently left the door open, out there stalked the stately parrot. It flew with swiftness and precision to a tree in Lincoln Square, with Mr. Whitmore, Mr. Sim and an adequate supporting company of parrot-hunters in pursuit. One of the number climbed a tree to retrieve the parrot. The foxy bird let the hunter get within a few feet of it and then flew to another tree. It flitted from tree to tree till it had tired out all the amateur tree-climbers.

When they were exhausted and had been for some time the recipients of such advice from the crowd as "Put salt on its tail," "Sing to it," "Use a lasso," etc., it winged its flight to a fourth-story window in the Thomas Building.

Here it had to cope with John Kennedy, a chauffeur. He got a stick and thrust it out of the window, hoping that the parrot, which was on the window ledge, would be feeble-minded enough to settle on the stick and so permit itself to be drawn inside the building. The parrot did put one foot on the stick, but just as Kennedy was about to draw in the stick the parrot looked down at the crowd, winked and withdrew its foot. Kennedy tried moral suasion, but the parrot would not be coaxed. Again the stick went into operation. By this time the parrot had become enamored of the attention it was attracting and poked its foolish head over the ledge as if to acknowledge the applause. This was Kennedy's opportunity. He reached out and caught the runaway and held it fast.

The tired business men, who crowded the street below, then went about their pressing affairs, and the parrot, which had had a busy time, went back to the shop in custody of Kennedy.

MADAME SIMPLY GOWNED.

Countess De La Bergassiere Model of Exquisite Taste in Dressing.

Baltimore Sun.

The perfection of simplicity is the term that best applies to a really well-dressed woman, and of all the women in the world the French woman best knows the secret of such perfection. No better example of this could be given than the dainty little French Countess, who is just now stopping at the Hotel Belvedere, with her brothers, Counts Jacques and Bertrand de Lesseps.

Countess de la Bergassiere is a particularly beautiful woman, and yet it is not so much her beauty that first strikes the beholder as her general air of being perfectly costumed. One feels the instinctive care of the minutest details that have gone to make such a harmonious whole. In not one respect is the extreme of fashion to be found; instead the idea seems to be unobtrusiveness, as if the fair wearer had chosen her styles with a view of being inconspicuous. Materials, of course, are of the handsomest, yet chosen with a view to their suitability to the type of the wearer. The serge suit worn by the Countess a few days ago seemed as if the very cloth had been woven for her and for that stormy day, so well did it suit the wearer and occasion.

Her hat was enough like the present average fashionable beaver chapeau to pass unnoticed by a casual observer, yet on closer view it was individual to an extreme. It was neither too large nor too small for the piquant face beneath and seemed planned as a fitting frame, not an ornamental head covering.

It was the same with each part of the Countess' costume. Her chiffon waist was inconspicuous but exquisite, and a string of pearls round her throat would appear to have been worn simply to lighten the effect of the black costume.

Madame's furs were black and the muff only medium large. Tucked into the collar was a small bouquet of fresh violets. Apparently no "aids to beauty" were used and not the slightest trace of powder or rouge was to be seen—no odor of perfume—nothing, in fact, to mar the picture of a lady, in the truest sense of that much maligned word.

During their stay in Baltimore the Countess and her talented brothers will be the recipients of much attention, if the short time that they can spare from the aviation meet will permit.

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Howard Gardner.

Mr Otto Paul, Milwaukee, Wis., says:

Foley's Honey and Tar is still more than the best. He writes us, "All those that bought it think it is the best for coughs and colds they ever had and I think it is still more than the best. Our baby had a bad cold and it cured him in one day. Please accept thanks." Howard Gardner.

NEW ARRIVALS EVERY DAYHuntley-Stockton-Hill Co.UNDERTAKING OUR SPECIALTY
PHONES DAY 762 NIGHT 1442A Runaway Stagecoach

By WALTON WILLIAMS

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

"The stagecoach of the past," said one of a party discussing the comparative dangers of different methods of travel, "had its advantages. True, a reckless driver would once in awhile swing round a sharp curve on mountain side and spill a load of passengers down a precipice a few thousand feet, but such occurrences were rare. I remember one close call I had out in Colorado half a century ago when I was a youngster that I wouldn't like to go through again. If an accident of equal importance should happen to a railroad train, even on comparatively level ground, it would be awful."

"On the particular occasion I'm going to tell you about we started from Georgetown, in the mountains, to go down to Denver. There's a loop railroad at Georgetown now, but at that time there was nothing but a turnpike. A green hand at driving, an Irishman, Mike Rourke, from the stables had been put on the box, the regular driver, Dan Patterson, having been laid off for illness. Patterson was inside the coach, going down to Golden City, where he lived.

"It was a fine day, and we were regaled with many extensive views of the plains at the foot of the range, appearing for all the world like an ocean. Indeed, geologists say that it was once an ocean bottom. From the brow of an eminence where we were admiring one of these views we could see the road before us winding down a steep incline and at the bottom rising a shorter distance to another summit. A few moments after we started down we noticed that instead of going slow, as was necessary for safety on such inclines, we seemed to start off with a quickening pace and were soon rolling downward at a furious speed. Patterson thrust his head out of the window and drew it in again, white as a cloth.

"What is it?" we all asked breathlessly.

"Don't know, but we're all likely to be dashed to pieces."

"Coming from a trained stage driver, this set us all wild. Some of the women grasped frantically at the doors, but two of us men, one on each side, knowing that to jump would be certain death and remaining inside might mean life, held the doors shut. But the inside of that stagecoach was the wildest scene I ever witnessed—women shrieking and men (some of them) trying to reassure them, while others were holding on to something as if in that way they could hold the coach back.

"But looking outside was worse than the inside. The few scrub trees there were beside the road shot by like arrows. The coach swayed, and as every curve in the road we felt sure it would upset, and sometimes an upset meant a spill over the side of a precipice. We kept hoping that there would be some slackening of speed, but instead of slackening the pace was continually growing faster, and the quicker the pace the more the coach reeled.

"By this time the babel among the passengers was deafening. Some were praying, while others were shouting at us two men who kept a strong grip at the doors to let them out. One big strong man, maddened by terror, hammered me unmercifully to make me open the door. But I held on with a death grip. I think that having something to do helped me to retain my own equanimity. If anything more was needed it was supplied by the sight of men crazed by fear ready to do any foolish or selfish act. Passing a house beside the road, I saw a man standing in the door looking at the coach with his eyes and mouth wide open. But I saw him only a moment, for he flew by like a cannon ball.

"Then the swaying of the coach grew less and the terrible speed at which we were going seemed to be lessening. I put my head out the window and, looking forward, saw that we were near the bottom of the incline and in a few moments would be rolling along a comparatively straight ascent. The sudden transition from almost certain death to sure safety produced a very singular effect on me. The blows of the big man who had tried to force me to open the door had produced no effect on me of any kind. Relieved from the strain, my first act was to stretch my arm and plant my fist against his eye and knock him sprawling on the seat behind him. Then I cried:

"Hurrah! We're safe!"

"From this moment our pace slackened, but we went far up the hill before it was reduced to anything like a quiet run. The coach was a long while coming to a full stop, seemingly as though it must do so of its own weight. When it did we all tumbled out. The driver, too, came down from the box and stood at the head of his trembling leaders.

"What was it?" we all cried in a breath.

"It was war," replied Mike, pointing to the tongue that lay on the ground at the heels of the wheelers. Patterson, who in addition to being ill had been on a terrible strain, saw it and, realizing what we had escaped, had to hold on to a wheel to avoid dropping down. I went up to Mike and asked him what measures he had taken with the horses after the tongue dropped. "I tickled 'em all the way down, son," he said."

We hope the city will "come on" with these lights. What's the hitch, anyway?

North Carolina folks made a noise Tuesday like they didn't want Mr. Butler for Senator any more.

The Democratic majority in the House is 30 to 60. "Success" forecasted an even division. "Success" should stick to its business as a magazine. It is a poor forecaster.

It is a pleasure to remark upon the energy which Democratic Chairman E. G. Sherrill threw into the county campaign. He worked vigorously and effectively and the showing made by the Democracy of Guilford reflected credit on his management of party affairs.

It is claimed that a Democratic House will have its hands tied. Not necessarily. The people have shown by their votes that they are dissatisfied with the policy the Republican party has been following. They have made this so plain that wayfaring man can see it. That being so, it would seem that a Republican President and a Republican Senate would see the need of saving their political bacon by joining with the Democrats in giving the people the reforms that they have unmistakenably shown that they wanted.

That wise, albeit rather too cynical philosopher, the Atchison Globe, says:

Possibly you are alarmed because of American extravagance in public and private affairs. Some day we will welcome a big smash to regulate things. But we are all more or less responsible for the alarming extravagance. We all brag too much. This brag, which too many of us think is harmless, has resulted in a big navy we do not need; in the Panama Canal; in the tariff; in many other extravagant things that will finally sap the life out of us if we don't watch out.

The people generally agree with the Globe that this country's affairs have been extravagantly managed. They are looking to the Democracy to cut down expenses. If the Democrats don't come up to expectations, why so much the worse for the Democrats. The folks want to pay less in taxes, indirect as well as direct.

Speaking of the downfall of Colonel Roosevelt, the New York World says:

There is nothing in this world more pitiless than the indifference or scorn of a great and self-reliant democracy when it turns its back upon a convicted self-seeker.

There was a time when the people of the United States thought extremely well of Theodore Roosevelt. His encomiums were sounded in every newspaper, regardless of politics. But his prestige began to wane when the cables brought the news that he was lecturing the people of Europe about how they ought to run their affairs and it took an awful slump when he got back to his native land and announced its grave need of sweeping reform at the hands of himself. Too much flattery, it was all too plain, had turned his head. The American people, and we don't doubt all other peoples are the same way, have no patience with the man who, to use a common but very expressive phrase, is "stuck on himself."

Our Republican friends are busy explaining how it happened. Hon. Richmond Pearson, of Asheville, is prepared to account for every single, solitary vote the G. O. P. lost. Says he:

Four causes were operating concurrently to produce the result. First, keen disappointment at Mr. Taft's constant preference of Democrats over Southern Republicans; second, the illogical inconsistent and grotesque action of the Greensboro Convention in trying to endorse Mr. Taft without qualification and in the same breath nominating to our highest tribunal the identical men whom Mr. Taft had several and successively inspected, insulted and turned down for an inferior office; third, the ambiguous, impudent and obviously deceptive plank on local self-government; fourth, but greater than this, than these, than all, saddling upon the Republican party the responsibility for alleged acts of Mr. Marion Butler, committed or performed at a time when Mr. Butler was fighting the most cherished principles of the Republican party and assailing its most beloved and most honored leaders. This form of vicarious punishment stands out unique in the history of political tactics, and men like Mr. Simmons and Mr. Aycock must have laughed in their sleeves while the remorseless work proceeded.

I believe that the fierce and passionate denunciation of Mr. Butler hurt the Republican cause less than Mr. Butler's admission that while holding the State's highest commission he prosecuted and later collected a claim against the sovereign power which had thus honored him. There is no statute law against such an act, because until now it has been considered unnatural, if not impossible. United States Senators are like ambassadors and not even a Tallyrand or a Machiavelli though each was a genius of ardent and daring nature, ever prosecuted a claim against the government whose highest credentials he bore.

The Republicans would have lost in this State without Butler, but perhaps not so decisively. In comparison with the Republican Congressional candidates in the close districts, the Democrats in every instance offered a superior man and a man, too, unhampered by previous participation in factional quarrels. As has been many times remarked before, the public sentiment of the land has swung toward Democratic policies and the people of North Carolina are pretty much like the people of other parts of the country.

MUSIC PUTS CHURCH
WAY OUT OF TUNE

"Progressives" Want "Modern Airs" by Paid Quartet, While Others Like Old Chorus.

New York World.

The Methodist Episcopal church of Flushing, L. I., is passing through a crisis over the subject of music. The church is very successful in saving souls and is growing in numbers and influence and has reached the point where the more progressive members believe that it can afford to have the most modern music sung by a professional quartet instead of the old fashioned chorus. Incidentally there is a first-class row over the position of organist.

Twenty-five years ago, when the church was a struggling society fighting blindly for recognition among the other denominations, the late A. H. Harris organized the choir of sixteen voices, male and female, and under his skilful guidance it became the most famous chorus in rural Long Island. For years it held its place till the young folks that had organized it grew old and their voices failed them one by one, or they married and went away.

The progressive members complained about it, and gradually a party grew in the church that demanded a modern paid quartet. They maintained the church could now afford to pay for good music.

Then rose up some of the older members who had faithfully given their services for half a lifetime and said that if singers were to be paid they had fair claim to be the ones.

Miss Imogene Areson, a talented music teacher, who with her family had been connected with the choir of the church for forty years, was organist. No one doubted her ability as a musician. She had been organist for years. Flushing owed much to her as a teacher of music through long years of service. Some of the modern members objected to her methods of church music. Among these were members of the new committee on music. It was pointed out to her that she should play a prelude while the congregation was coming in. She said it disturbed her and that she would much Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

rather play after they got in and were seated.

Her music was classical enough, but members of the committee objected to the loudness with which she accompanied the solo by members of the new quartet, composed of Miss Vivian Holt of Elmhurst, soprano; Robert Robinson of Manhattan, tenor; A. E. Wilson, baritone, and his wife, contralto, the latter two new members of the church.

On Oct. 30 Miss Areson accompanied Miss Holt in a solo at the morning service and was criticised by the Music Committee. She refused to play for the evening service and resigned next day. Some of the members of the old chorus promptly took sides with her. Now a new organist and chorus must be engaged to help the quartet, and the members of the old chorus say that they will not help. The new minister, the Rev. Raymond L. Forman, says that the breach will be healed and peace will reign.

The Star felicitates the Hon. Charles M. Stedman upon his election to Congress from the Fifth Congressional District. We congratulate North Carolina upon the election of Major Stedman. This former distinguished citizen of Wilmington was the Democrat of Democrats to redeem the Fifth district and he has done so in a triumphant manner after a canvass marked with laborious work and distinguished for the vigor and ability displayed by Major Stedman on the stump. The Major is one of the State's most brilliant, effective and convincing campaigners and the Fifth district has conferred an honor upon the State in electing that gallant Confederate soldier, true Carolinian and able lawyer to a seat in Congress. He will be a distinguishing figure in the North Carolina delegation in the next Congress and his presence in the National House of Representatives will honor the State to which he is devoted and which in honoring him has honored itself.

Is This a Good Time to Buy Property?

We are often asked this question. Is this a good time to buy property. Or, is this a good time to sell property. Our reply invariably is this: The time to buy is when the other fellow wants to sell, or, the time to sell is when the other wants to buy.

On Thursday of this week the other fellow wants to sell; in fact has to sell for a division. So we unhesitatingly say—this is the time to buy—and too, this is a particularly good time to buy, as business is improving in all lines, and real estate will surely be higher and in greater demand.

Attend the auction sale of the "Crutchfield property" Thursday, Nov. 10, 2 p. m. and buy one or more of the houses and lots and our word for it, you will make money on it.

BROUGHT UP HOT WATER.

The Friction of the Boat Made the Ocean Almost Boil.

The steamship was speeding over seas with a record breaking list of passengers when one of the gay, young and inquiring girls who are found on every trip skipped up to the captain and asked:

"Captain, are we really going fast? It seems as if we were just crawling."

"Fast," answered the captain gruffly, "of course we're going fast. With nothing to see but water and sky you can't judge our speed, but, my dear young lady, the friction of the boat is so great it makes the water hot aft."

"I don't believe it," giggled the girl, and the captain, with a great show of indignation, called for a rope and bucket to prove his words. These brought, he slung the pall down aft of the vessel directly under the drainpipe of the galley, where hot water runs all day, and brought it up smoking, to the astonishment of the awestruck girl.

A long, lean Yankee who had been watching the performance then came forward and drawled, "Say, cap, that must make you change your course mighty often."

"Change my course?" blustered the captain. "What would I change my course for?"

"Well," said the Yankee slowly, "so darn much friction as that must wear the ocean out mighty quick."—Philadelphia Times.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. After eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50 c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

FORTUNE FOR TWO GIRLS AFTER A LONG WAIT.

The American Stepdaughters of Count Cronhjelm, Who Died in 1904, to Get $27,000 Each.

Boston, Nov. 9.—According to judgment rendered by the Royal Superior Court, Sweden, two East Boston girls, Miss Anna and Miss Elsie Nelson, are to receive $27,000 each. The two girls are beneficiaries under the will of their stepfather, Count Carl Cronhjelm, who died at Stockholm in 1904. The share which the Boston girls are to receive will be forwarded them soon by the executor of the Count's will, a Stockholm lawyer named Carl Lagerlof. Count Carl Cronhjelm, who belonged to an old and distinguished family, came to this country in his early youth.

His journeys brought him to Boston where he met Mrs. William Nelson, a widow. Count Carl and Mrs. Nelson later married. Mrs. Nelson, when she married the Count, had two young children, Elsie and Anna.

In 1899 Count Carl received word that the possessor of the family estate had died and it was found that he was heir to the whole fortune. With the two girls the Count and his wife left Boston for Stockholm, where the Castle Flota was ready to receive them. Countess Cronhjelm, mother of the two girls, died at Stockholm in 1900.

By a will of 1902 Count Carl bequeathed two-fifths of his fortune to the Boston girls. The remainder was given to institutions and friends in Sweden.

But according to Swedish law, the estate, upon the Count's death, could not be disposed of according to the will while there was a living man by the name of Cronhjelm. It was known that another member of the family, Count Alfred Robert Cronhjelm, born in 1840, had emigrated to America in 1878. Search was made in this country for the missing Count Alfred and it was found that he died at North Whitehall, Lehigh County, Pa.

MAN'S WILL POWER.

Bismarck's Comment on Schopenhauer and His Theory.

OH, THOSE WOMEN.

Some of the Funny Incidents of Their Voting at Pittsburg.

New York Press.

In an entertaining account of a dinner party at Prince Bismarck's Berlin residence which is given in the recollections of the Livonian journalist Eckhardt the following, which was a part of the table talk, shows the host in a new light: The conversation had turned on Bismarck's early days at Frankfurt, and Eckhardt asked whether at the table d'hôte of the Hotel d'Angleterre his host had ever met Schopenhauer. "No," said Bismarck; "he had no use for me nor I for him. Moreover, I have never had time or desire to occupy myself with philosophy. While I was a student Schopenhauer was still unknown. I know absolutely nothing about his system."

Another guest, an admirer of Schopenhauer, then joined enthusiastically in the conversation and explained that the philosopher's great merit consisted in the discovery of the fact that will power was the indestructible essence of the mind of man and that intelligence was only of secondary importance. "That may very well be true," said Prince Bismarck, "at least as far as I am concerned, for I have often noticed that my will had already come to a decision while my mind had not yet finished thinking about the same subject."

A blunder by some one made trouble in the fashionable East End district yesterday morning. Yesterday they had sent word they would not open the polls until afternoon. Some persons announced in the morning papers that the polls would open at 9 a. m. and there was a great scrambling in the East End just about that time. A score of women tried to get into the polling places, but the election officers refused to come and open the polls. While most of the early bird voters returned home in disgust, others motored down town to the main polling place and cast their ballots there. Tener refused to make any comment when the result was told to him last night.

Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and anti-septic for the urine. A Total Eclipse of Lard TroublesCottolene

LARD

Lard is the fore-runner of indigestion. The hog-fat soaks the pastry through and through, fills meats inside and out with a thick, unhealthy grease that the digestive juices cannot penetrate. The result is a call on the doctor whose advice is to go on a diet and avoid all rich food.

You can eat pies, cakes and all kinds of pastry if they are cooked with Cottolene, for it is a pure, healthful, vegetable-oil product that contains no trace of hog fat, and does not make food the least bit greasy.

From Cottonfield to Kitchen—human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made. The result is that when you buy Cottolene you get a cooking fat upon whose purity and cleanliness you can absolutely rely.

Sugar.
Our word "sugar" is said to be derived from the Arabic "sukkar," the article itself having got into Europe through the Arabian Mohammedans, who overran a great part of the world in the seventh, eighth and ninth centuries. According to Dr. Van Lippman, a Dutch writer, as a result of the Arab invasion of Persia sugar found its way into Arabia, whence again its culture was carried to Cyprus, Rhodes, Sicily and Egypt. In the last named country the preparation of sugar was greatly improved, and the Egyptian product became widely famous. From Egypt the industry spread along the northern coasts of Africa and so entered Spain, where, about the year 1150, some fourteen refineries were in operation. Columbus introduced sugar cane into the new world.—Argonaut.

His Bad Dream.
Truly oriental was the defense put forward by a prisoner at Alipore.
Charged with stealing a Hindu idol with its ornaments, he stated that the goddess told him in a dream the night before that, as she was not properly worshiped by the Hindu priest, she would be better taken care of by him, a Mohammedan, and that unless he took charge of her worship she would in her wrath destroy his whole family.
The magistrate, however, was not satisfied with the story and sentenced the accused to two months' rigorous imprisonment and to pay a fine.—Bon-bay Gazette.

When the Loss Was Feit.
Wife (on returning home after a long visit)—Have you noticed that my husband missed me much while I was away, Mary? Maid—Well, mum, I didn't notice that he felt your absence much at first, but this last day or two he has certainly seemed very downhearted, mum.

OFF FOR PANAMA

President Taft Will Inspect Big Ditch
For Second Time.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 16.—President Taft arrived here soon after 6 o'clock after an uneventful trip from Washington. After breakfasting at the residence of Mayor Rhett he addressed the white school children at 9:30 and the colored school children at 9:45. Both addresses were brief, but pointed. There were no ladies in the party, although Mrs. Taft and the Misses Taft were expected. The President was accompanied by Captain Archibald Butt, Secretary Norton, Chief of Secret Service Wilkie, secret service agents and newspaper correspondents.

Charles, S. C., Nov. 10.—President Taft sailed today for the Isthmus of Panama to get in personal touch with conditions along the big canal. Mr. Taft visited the Isthmus just before his inauguration in 1909 but since then varied executive and engineering problems have arisen and Congress soon must frame legislation as to rates of toll, form of government, the regulation of the sale of coal, the disposition of the Panama railroad and many other things. The President expects to make various recommendations regarding the canal at the coming short session of Congress.

Mr. Taft sailed on the armored cruiser Tennessee with the cruiser Montana as convoy. While officially rated as cruisers these vessels have the general proportions of the battleships of a few years ago although they could not stand up very long against the modern dreadnoughts. Both cruisers have a speed of 22 knots and will make the trip to Colombia in four days. Mr. Taft expects to be on the isthmus four days and is due back in Charleston November 22. He will stop over a few hours in Richmond on the 23d and be back in Washington that afternoon.

The President's special squadron is under the command of Rear Admiral Staunton, with the Tennessee as flagship. Admiral Staunton, Capt. Quimby, of the Montana, and Rear Admiral Fox, commanding the Charleston navy yard were at the depot to greet the President when he arrived this morning.

The President and members of his party were driven to the home of Mayor Rhett for breakfast. Later the President reviewed groups of white and colored school children.

Mr. Taft went aboard the Tennessee's launch at the custom house wharf. As he made his way up the starboard gangway of the big gray cruiser, his flag was run up and he was received with a ruf-fe of drums, a blare of trumpets and all the ceremonies accorded the commander-in-chief of the American forces.

The President is making a purely business trip to Panama and accompanied only by his brother, Charles P. Taft, his secretary, Charles Norton, two aides,
a physician and stenographer.

Sale of City Property.
Mr. S. S. Brown yesterday sold at public auction the property of the late A. A. Crutchfield, consisting of nine pieces of property. The sale was largely attended and the property brought what was considered good prices. The property consisted of the home place on West Lee, two lots on Haywood street and six lots in Warnersville. The total proceeds of the sale were $4,500. Mrs. A. A.
Crutchfield purchased the home place for $1,900. Mr. R. L. England was the auctioneer.
